

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the United Nations symbolizes man's eternal quest for enduring peace with justice, and provides us with our most promising means for achieving that high purpose; and

WHEREAS, the United Nations has, on numerous occasions during its brief life, clearly and forcefully demonstrated its value as a vital diplomatic forum in times of international crises; and

WHEREAS, the United Nations, through its participation in programs for social and economic development, has provided significant material assistance and leadership throughout the world in efforts to raise standards of life; and

WHEREAS, the United Nations actively sponsors and advances the cause of human rights; and

WHEREAS, the United Nations serves the interests of the United States and the State of South Dakota by promoting humanitarian principles which we share; and

WHEREAS, citizens of the State of South Dakota should recognize the aims and accomplishments of the United Nations; and

WHEREAS, the General Assembly of the United Nations has resolved that October twenty-fourth, the anniversary of the coming into force of the United Nations Charter, should be dedicated each year to making known the purposes, principles, and accomplishments of the United Nations:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, ARCHIE GUBBRUD, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby urge the citizens of this State to observe Saturday, October 24, 1964, as

by means of community programs which will demonstrate their faith in the United Nations and contribute to a better understanding of its aims, problems, and accomplishments.

I also call upon the officials of the State Government and upon local officials to encourage citizen groups and agencies of the press, radio, television, and motion pictures to engage in appropriate observance of United Nations Day throughout the State in cooperation with the United States Committee for the United Nations and other organizations.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed on this 8th day of October in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and sixty-four.

Archie Gubbrud
ARCHIE GUBBRUD, GOVERNOR
